FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

HAPPY THANKSGIVING
EVERYONE!!!!

The year 2007 is almost over and before we know it 2008 will bring our quarterly meetings, campouts and contests. I've listed the dates for some events. Be sure to mark them on your calendars.

The Winston Quarterly Meeting starts off the year on January 12th. The hall will be open at 8:00 for all the early arrivers. There will be coffee and doughnuts, muffins, etc., for all at that time. Potluck will be at noon after the meeting.

There are two motels in Winston, one is the Sweet Breeze Inn as you are coming into Winston @ $55.00 per night and the other is Shady Oaks on the old Hwy 99 off the Freeway. It is $45.00 per night. There are two just off the freeway in Roseburg also, the Best Western @ $99.00 per night and the Comfort Inn @ $71.99 per night.

Just want to remind you that you can still get your nominations to me for our "Distinguished Service Award" before our January state meeting. Nominees should be those who have contributed to OOTFA either through their service to our association and/or through their music. Please contact me if you need more information.

The Oregon State Fiddlers have been asked to be the host State for The National Oldtime Fiddlers' Contest this year in Weiser.

We would be playing on stage every evening from 6:00 -- approx. 6:50 or 7:00 Could you send me your names and some good jam tunes that you know, if you can go, It would be nice to have tunes that everyone knows. If we get a good list of tunes, I can send it to everyone that will be going. That will give people time to practice them and put on a really good fun show. No contest tunes. They want the Host State to show the audience the fun and casual side of fiddling. Send them to Irene Ruddock e-mail address irene@cvc.net or 2251 Pine Grove Rd. Klamath Falls, OR 97603. During the week we will be asked to play at some of the nursing home, senior center, and hospitality centers. This is not a requirement but will give everyone more playing time. Also, there is a parade on Sat that they would like us to be a part of. They will get the transportation for us to ride on.

Keep playing good music and we will see you at some of these next events

From the editor emeritus/editor for December.

I am "back in the saddle again" for this month anyway while our editor, Joe, is off on a vacation to a distant land. On the 4th of November Amy Booher invited kids to her house for a "kids' jam." Alice and I attended. Les Tucker was there for back up. After everybody had filled up at a nice potluck, the kids gathered around Amy at the piano and each one chose a tune as they went around the circle. After the first tune was play I figured I had better write the titles down to hear and remember what the kids played (in order): Cripple Creek, Red Wing, Rubber Dolly, Arkansas Traveler, Old Joe Clark, Tennessee Waltz, Liberty, Amazing Grace, Sweet Georgia Brown, Soldier's Joy, Ook Pic Waltz, Boil Them Cabbages Down, Shortin Bread, Red Haired Boy, Swallow Tail Gig, Craw Dad Song, Rubber Dolly - vocal, I'll Fly Away, Noel, Faded Love, Cotton Eyed Joe, Angelina the Baker, Aron's Boat Song, and Orange Blossom Special. How is that for a list of tunes? I was impressed.

During the month -- between Hoedowners - I send out quite a few "OOTFA updates" by e-mail. Some good news and some sad news. If you don't want to receive them, let me know and I'll removed your address. If you don't receive them and have email and

December 15 - Winchester Bay jam at 1:00pm

Membership dues for OOTFA need to be paid and the records to Mark before Dec. 18. Why not pay them "right now." Thanks. Send your dues to our district five membership person.

Happy Holidays to all!!

The tables were over laden with ham, turkey and all the fixings at our annual holiday potluck in Winchester Bay. Over 50 people enjoyed the food, camaraderie and music. It was great to have Ernie Penry, Joyce Pickett and Whitey Kolm come over and visit with us.

Our next jam will be on December 15th in Winchester Bay from 1:00 to 4:00 pm. Stay tuned for time and place of our January jam.

Since no one has been using our OOTFA Bulletin Board or our on-line music sharing system, I will be canceling those services at the end of the year. If there is a substantial interest at a later date, we can renew again.

Mapril would like to send a special thanks to Charlotte Dow and Barbara Pruitt. "Those two sit at the table at jams, selling raffle tickets, signing people in, etc., and have done countless hours finding stuff for the raffle and just being invaluable to the group"

For those who have to share their Birthdays with the Christmas month, have a great Natal day! And for those who tied the knot in December, here's to you!!!

And for a blatant commercial, if you would like to have a wonderful week-end of traditional folk music, jam sessions, crafts and food, plan to attend the Winter Folk Festival in Florence in January 19-20th, 2008. Several OOTFA members will be participating and District 5 is one of the sponsors.

2 Christmas Jam Lebanon Moose 10:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

January

19 Meeting, Jam and Potluck Central Grange 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Our Thanksgiving Jam was fantastic. There were 73 in attendance, eating, playing music, having fun and dancing up a storm. We sure have some great cooks in this district. There were several new faces and some new members. We welcome them and hope they continue to join us.

We are looking forward to our Christmas Jam at the Lebanon Moose. There is usually a big turnout and the Ladies of the Moose cook a great meal. Please join us and see Santa?? The directions: From I-5, take exit 228 (Hwy 34) toward Lebanon. Go through Lebanon toward Sweet Home. The Moose Lodge is on the southeast edge of Lebanon, on the right, about a mile past Wal-Mart.

Our January meeting will be on the 19th at Central Grange. It will be a meeting followed by a potluck and jam. The address is Central Grange, 87200 Central Road, Eugene, OR 97403. We hope to see you there.

Our sympathies go out to the family of Peggy Stratton. Peggy passed in October from complications following her two broken legs. She was a very nice lady and a member of the Fiddlers for many years.

Other Jams: Wayne Carpenter's jams are on the first Saturday of the month from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. at Jasper Grange. The one on Dec 1st will be a potluck, but the Ladies of the Grange will be cooking the meals starting in January, charging a nominal fee. This is a fund raiser for the grange. Wayne's Thursday jam for December will be on Dec 20th from 11 a.m.- 4 p.m. After the first of the year they will be on the fourth Thursday. All are potlucks. Bernie Charlebois hosts a jam and potluck on the second Tuesday of the month from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. The Friday night jams are the first Friday at Central Grange and the second Friday at Crow Grange. Both are finger-food potlucks and are from 7:30-10:30 p.m.

Birthdays: Thelma Salley 12/1, Viola Epperly 12/2, Mark Carmickle 12/6, Rick Dobson 12/10. Brian Neal 12/12, Marlene Chatoian 12/14, Betty Hawkins 12/19, Lloyd Shriber 12/23, Della White 12/24, Oral Robbins 12/25, Richard Marino 12/17, Ellen Strelow 12/17 and Joan Nelson.

Anniversaries: Frank and Frieda Chandler 12/9, Dave and Lena Stubbs 12/11, Bob and Ellen Strelow 12/17 and Gary and Viola Epperly 12/27.

If I have not listed your birthdays or anniversaries, it's because I don't have them. Let me know.

want to receive them, let me know, too. If an email address is returned several times, I delete the address. Please notify me if you change your email address. Ahem, if you do, please sign your first and last name. Thanks.

Membership information: There are all kinds of rumors about when your membership should be in to retain your current membership. If you pay your dues to your district membership chairman say on Dec. 15 and he or she doesn't get it to Mark for a week, you are too late. Mark will have sent the addresses to the publisher on Dec. 18 for the Jan. 1 issue and your name won't be on the list to get your Hoedowner. The safest thing to do is pay your dues in November (or the first week in December after you receive the Hoedowner) so there won't be any problem. I served as state membership chairman years ago when all of the dues came directly to me. The most common thing I heard when somebody didn't get their Hoedowner was, "Lew, I paid you in the fall." And I would reply in Feb. or March, "show me your check." And you guessed it, they didn't have it. They had meant to pay their dues but never got around to it. So do it now, please. Your district membership person is listed at the beginning of each district news. No, don't wait until after dinner, do it now.

Sunday, March 16, Salem-Keizer Sr. Center, Irish Stew Dinner

Our October jam at McMinnville was well attended. We welcomed two of our scholarship students, Brian Stiner and Josh Wood along with their fiddle teacher Ginny Hollon. Brian is a regular at our jams. Glad to have Josh join us too! We hope to meet more of our scholarship recipients in the future!

The next day a group of us played at Bauman Farms near Woodburn during their "Pumpkin Patch" fall festivities.

Four District 8 members played for Hillside Manor's Memory unit. It was well received, and the audience sang along with many of the tunes.

We had an e-mail from Rob Griswold, another young District 8 fiddler, who is now attending college in Washington state. He sends his greetings to all of you.

Hanneke Cassel, former member of District 5 was the star of a concert held in Salem. She lived up to the description the Boston Globe gave her: wild but innocent. In addition to her regular back up players on cello and guitar, she was joined on several numbers by Alex Hargreaves. What a treat to hear these talented young musicians! Google "Hanneke Cassel" and you will be pleasantly surprised. There are many websites.

Several District 8ers and others attended a Scottish Fiddle Workshop taught by Hanneke. Thanks to the Whitaker family for hosting the workshop at their home. Your hospitality is much appreciated.

We will have met at McMinnville on Saturday, November 24th when you read this.

Our Holiday Dinner is planned for December 15th at McMinnville Senior Center. Turkey, Ham, potatoes and gravy, and dressing will be furnished. Please bring your favorite salad or other side dish and dessert. Dinner will be at 11:30, followed by a sign up jam.

Here are the directions to the Senior Center. If you are traveling from the south through McMinnville going north on the main highway -- after you have gone through the business district and start to go out of town, there will be a McDonald's on the left (north side of the highway), right there you turn right (south) on to McDaniel St. and the Senior Center is a couple of blocks on the left. Dec. 14 Aspens

October 27th found us at the Elks Club entertaining for the State American Legion and Auxiliary who were holding their first quarterly meeting in Burns. It was a first trip for several of the group to the "edge of nowhere" and I think they were pleasantly surprised and they enjoyed the music. Playing were Janet Brayman, John Borelli, Joan Suther, Billie Lanier, Walt Cooper and Julia Milleson.

We've had some newcomers attending our jam sessions. Carolyn Stamm and Phyllis Com-mereee and two new musicians Dennis and Donna Townsend. Dennis plays 12 string guitar and Donna plays autoharp and sings.

Janet Brayman's folks Al-len and Pauline celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary and their daughter Karen Hamlington of Bethel Springs, Tennessee played with us at the Aspens. Son Mike of Baker City and the rest of the family came to out Sunday potluck and jam. We all enjoyed some more of the re-maining cake. Karen performed with us and Mike coerced into singing "Goober Peas." A fun day.

Joe and Mickey Enne-berg's daughter Anita and son-in-law Russ Hunt were at a re-cent jam. They usually join us when they are in town. Russ plays saxophone and that is a treat.

At the November meeting our president George Sahlberg got volunteers Marge Mcrae and her daughter Sally Lovins to roast our holiday turkey and George and Hilda will do the spuds and gravy. All the rest are asked to bring potluck dishes that will compliment the dinner. The dinner will be held at the Senior Center potluck and jam on December 9th. We eat at 1:00 and have music from 2:00 until 4:00.

We play Aspens again Friday Dec. 14th at 7:00 and Ashley Manor at 6:30 on Monday Dec. 17th.

Have a blessed holiday season

We had a great Thanksgiv- ing potluck, loads of good food and people. Thanks to everyone that brought the good food. We didn't think we'd be able to find a parking spot, people were parked in the street.

There were lots of players for the jam including the Bluegrass group. The floor was crowded with dancers, and visitors in the audi- ence listening to the good music.

Happy Birthday and Anniversary to all that had them this month. Flo Sangsland has been un- der the weather, we wish her a speedy recovery. And, to everyone else that has been ill.

We've been playing at the regular nursing homes every month. Our Christmas potluck will be December 8th, potluck at noon, jam at 1pm at the Winston Senior Center. Due to the State meeting here in January, we'll have our dis-
