The Place to be in '23 OOTFA Winter Gathering

The 2023 OOTFA Winter Gathering in Lebanon is the place for folks around the state to get together in the New Year and do what we do best! For two days, January 20-21, we will converge at the Lebanon Senior Center, see old friends, make new ones, and jam, jam, jam. On Saturday there will be a State Board Meeting followed by a potluck lunch, and then more jamming.

The Board Meeting is important, so if you can't make it please notify OOTFA President, Cindy Crane (contact information in the left panel on page 2) and have your Vice/Co-Chair or another member of your district represent you and have a voice in the business of the state. You must let Cindy know who that will be so that they can receive the proper, updated information.

First of all, hope everyone had great holidays. We are sending wishes to all of the members in each district to have the Best Year Ever in 2023.

There has been a change of reporters in District 1. We want to thank Jenny Dreyer for the dedication and the exceptional job she has done for District 1. Our hats off to you Jenny!

We were sorry to lose Bill Bonser, November 15, he was a great guitar player. Bill was born in 1936, in Moorwood, Oklahoma. Ann and Bill had been married 60 years and he had been an active member of OOTFA for many years. Bill had not been able to get out to various functions in our district for the last while, but he will be greatly missed by many. Cards can be sent to Ann, 1504 Patterson St., Klamath Falls, OR 97603.

District 1 Jammers

We had a holiday dinner at the Spark's house, and had lots of fun, food, and Jamming. We celebrated our very own Irene Ruddock's 93rd birthday too. She is just an energizer bunny, always busy quilting and fiddling, she is a great inspiration to the fiddlers.

Our group may not have a lot of events, but we sure have a great time together. Just a reminder that 2023 dues need to be paid. Happy Birthday to all our January members. Happy Trails, and Best Wishes.

District 3 Report begins on next page

December 2022 was a cold, snowy month in Central Oregon, except for one thing; the holiday spirit of our fiddlers, accompanying musicians and others in attendance at the Terrebonne Grange. There was plenty of holiday music with sing-alongs. We even got to interact with Santa Claus. And what is that on the front page? Our Chair LeRoy Newport sitting on Santa's lap!

Our officers and members are looking forward to year 2023 and considering ideas for other events such as jams and workshops. Jams are excellent opportunities for entry-level musicians to learn and improve their skills. They are open to those who play fiddle and other compatible acoustic instruments. It's amazing how much we can learn by just playing with others in informal or instructional settings.

All the holiday tune books are packed away for another season, cries of "Happy New Year!" fill the air and OOTFA members are happily looking forward to opportunities to meet with fellow members for fun, fellowship and lots of Old-Time Music!

District 4 finished November with a gig at a new facility, Pear Valley Assisted Living, in Central Point. About 6 musicians turned out to perform for the residents.

The District 4 December Monthly Meeting and Jam was held at the Roxy Ann Grange in Medford. Carol Ferrara had used her talents to transform the two rooms into a festive winter scene. Red and green tablecloths covered all the tables and winter garlands and poinsettia plants streamed across the table tops. There was even a darling little snowman with his very own little fiddle. Lenny Ferrara is always there to make sure the venue is safe for the audience to sit and listen to the music and that there's room to dance if they choose.

Question: What is the difference between a fiddle and a violin?

Answer: A fiddle is fun to listen to!

So: If you want to have fun in 2023, come play with or listen to the fiddlers in District 3

District 3 Members were in a festive, holiday spirit at the Terrebonne Grange

At the meeting, Judy McGarvey presented a tentative schedule for monthly meeting sites and dates for the coming year for discussion

The OOTFA Winter Gathering is scheduled for January 20-21 in Lebanon. All members are encouraged to attend and it's always a fun gathering with lots of music, food and fun.

The January District 4 Meeting and Jam will be held at the Fruitdale Grange in Grants Pass on January 7. This jam will be a little different from our usual jams.

HOEDOWNER

Tune of the Month

Due to the positive response to November's Hoedowner, which featured fiddling tips by District 7's David Altman, we offer a second helping of his tasty tips this month.

Bowing for Fiddle Music – The Bowed Triplet applied to Growling Old Man and Woman

The technique usually called “bowed triplet” isn’t really a bowed triplet. So, this introduction to another common bowing ornamentation is going to be applied to the tune "Growling Old Man and Woman" which isn’t the correct tune name, but just a mistranslation of the title in Canadian French; "La Grondeuse". Here’s a link for the Growling song played in the Québécois tradition: La Grondeuse on YouTube

I learned La Grondeuse from a Québécois fiddler, Louis Boudreault, who stayed with me while once on tour in Oregon: Louis Boudreault on YouTube. While the bowed triplet is particularly pervasive with Celtic fiddle styles, especially in Donegal, the bowed triplet is also used in French Canadian, Down East, American Old-Time, contra dance music, and other genres as well.

"Growling Old Man and Woman" can be found in many collections such as The Fiddler’s Fakebook (p. 128), however, the version presented here is my own transcription (minus other ornamentation and bowing techniques) and reverses the position of the A and B parts as was the version shown to me.

Growling Old Man & Woman (La Grondeuse)

A Part

Musical notation for the A Part of "Growling Old Man & Woman" (La Grondeuse). The notation is in treble clef, 4/4 time, and D major. It consists of two staves. The first staff shows the melody with notes and rests, and the second staff shows the bass line with notes and rests. Chord symbols A, G, Am, Em, and A are placed above the notes. A triplet of eighth notes is marked with a '3' above it in the second measure of the second staff.

B Part

Musical notation for the B Part of "Growling Old Man & Woman" (La Grondeuse). The notation is in treble clef, 4/4 time, and D major. It consists of two staves. The first staff shows the melody with notes and rests, and the second staff shows the bass line with notes and rests. Chord symbols Am, G, Am, G, and Am are placed above the notes. Triplet markings (3) are placed above the notes in the first, second, third, and fourth measures.

Part B can be your learning exercise with all the triplets on the same repeated note in the transcription (meaning you won’t apply a bowed triplet for the triplet slur in the 4th measure). If you use no slurs in the first 3 measures, then you will have a simple introduction to the bowed triplet alternating between starting with a down bow and starting with an up bow with the following bowed triplet, and then continuing the same pattern.

Why isn’t a “bowed triplet” properly represented as a bowed triplet? One reason is that the notes usually are not in equal amounts of time for the triplet. Some instructors try to represent the first 2 notes as sixteenth notes with an eighth note for the third note. Further, once you get the correct wrist movement, the bowed triplet can actually be performed with 4 (or more?) notes rather than 3 notes for producing the intended effect! I actually play the B Part of "La Grondeuse" by attempting approximately 4 notes in order to slur the 2 eighth notes in front of each bowed triplet to syncopate the song with each bowed triplet alternating the starting direction between up and down. Another clue is from the many other names for “bowed triplet,” including stutter, shiver, birl, treble, cut, and probably others.

Some additional tips can also help your learning curve for this important bowing technique. In the beginning, a novice would slow down the tune and naturally use a fairly large amount of bow space with arm movement to accomplish landing a “bowed triplet.” However, while listening to tunes with this technique, the more closely the fiddler goes to the correct dance tempo there must be shorter bow length for the notes. As you gain more comfort with getting a desired effect, you should naturally move almost entirely with the wrist, rather than using an arm stroke.

Included in the following links are some other videos from music teachers demonstrating the bowed triplet using a different approach that could be useful:

We will be playing for a benefit to raise money for the grange. It will be a "Chili Feed" sponsored by the grange manager, Jill Hamm. Judy McGarvey will hold a short meeting at 11:30. She has been working diligently to arrange the meeting schedule for next year and she wants to "Set It In Stone" at this meeting so if you want to have input you must attend this meeting. Ms. Hamm would like to open the grange to the public at 12:00 so musicians need to be ready to start playing then. There will be a time for everyone to take a break to eat at different times. This will be worked out on that day. There's no need to bring snacks to share. Check the District 4 online calendar for all gigs and meetings and directions or call a district officer they are there to help.

Happy New Year. 2023, already? Amazing.

We thoroughly enjoyed our annual Membership Holiday Dinner gathering held on Saturday, November 19th, at Winchester Bay at the Community Center. Our amazing Ruth Weyer managed the kitchen and roasted the turkey to mouth-watering perfection and also prepared several wonderful versions of dressing and potatoes! She organized everything so beautifully. She is a gem! When asked how she was able to accomplish such an impressive meal, she said, "Actually, it took the help of everyone in the district who came." She thanks everybody who showed up and contributed all the delicious dishes! Sharon Gallagher made a lovely ham and a delicious, old-fashioned raisin sauce to compliment it. And she received the compliments as well! Mapril came up with a version of ambrosia that would do our dear Larry Costa proud! He always made sure we were fixed for ambrosia each holiday meal. We miss Larry and all he brought to us—including his holiday ambrosia! Charlotte VerHagen made a delicious compote of sweet potatoes, yams, peaches and a sprinkling of cashews—Yum! Nicole Pierce always sends delicious things. Her offering this day was an incredible cole slaw which featured bleu cheese. Oh my goodness—literally! I wish there were room to report on everyone's tasty offerings.

Cliff Larson calling the cows home

After dinner, we adjourned to the main room to form our circle jam and play the afternoon away, as is our custom and our heart's desire. We were happy to see our devoted fan and member, Debbie Reavis, who brought her late husband, Rick's very nice Takamine guitar, autoharp and songbooks which she donated to us for a silent auction held during the day. The guitar was won by a delighted Barbara Scheirman which prompted retired teacher, Ken Joubert to dispense some wise advice: "Now you will have to practice," joked Ken! The auction brought $150 to our treasury and a very grateful thank you to Debbie for her generosity. It is indeed a great way to honor her husband's musical legacy. We all were so happy to see our Cliff Larson after a rather lengthy absence, bringing his guitar to the Circle Jam to join us. He treated us to his terrific rendition of "Cattle Call" by unanimous request. Nobody can do that song better. Not even Eddy Arnold.

In order to come up to speed on Holiday music and also learn some new music from one another, we decided to have regular practices. Our first practice was Tuesday, November 29. We will continue these practices every second and fourth Tuesdays. Kriss Fenton used her powers and pull to secure the Inland Point Venture Inn facility for us. Thank you lots, Kriss! Dawn Vonderlin wrote: "(Practicing together) will benefit our performances in many ways, plus it is good for your health and well-being to play music with friends!" Amen to that, Dawn!

I am marveling over our District 6 Calendar lately. Just look at all the musical opportunities we have now, on a regular, monthly basis! And, to boot, the list doesn't even include the Retirement Community gigs, which we have four of in January. The highlight this upcoming month is the 2023 Winter Gathering in Lebanon. We all hope the roads will not be too treacherous for travel. Details about the event are on page one.

Someone counted more than 35 people at our monthly Jam and Potluck at Central Grange in December.

Coquille Market was a new venue where we have been invited to play. But, we had one of our big ol' coast storms complete with wind and rain the day we were to play, so this event was postponed!

We remember our Lifetime Member, Ella Savery, who died at age 100 years on November 18. She was our second centurion Life Member to pass; the first was Charley Miller, who served as Chair of District 5, 20 or 30 years ago.

We are missing "our" Hal Thompson and his good wife, Sharon. Hal is recovering from a bunch of medical complications, but he is nothing if not TOUGH! I say he is "ours" because although he belongs to District 10, and they have reported on his health status previously, we also claim Hal and Sharon as "ours" in District 5! So, we are going to carry on his legacy until he can play with us again (we so hope), and play his Christmas song his mother taught him years ago. It's the "alphabet" C Is For Christmas tune. At this writing, we have one or two more performances, and we will do Hal's song and dedicate it to him and pretend he is still leading this delightful tune!

Wishing every one of you a warm and friend and family-filled holiday season. We look forward to what the New Year will bring us. Keep the music and friendship flowing!

~ Barbara Scheirman, District 5 Reporter

I have also noticed an uptick in numbers at other functions including some fresh, new faces, which are always welcome.

Those who enjoy the Intermediate Fiddle Class may want to take special note of the calendar for January. The class usually meets the first Saturday of the month, but the date has been moved to the 21st, for one time only. Yes, we do have two events occurring on the same weekend as the convention, that is not an error.

I was a victim of one of the nasty bugs going around in November and couldn't attend the Thanksgiving festivities at Central Grange, but I visited my mom in Redmond for the actual holiday. Between the two of us, with a little help from my old doggy pal, Bella, we practically finished off an entire turkey during the week I was there. A big bonus of my visit was visiting Tommy and Vivian Tucker. Tom sent home a 1936 Dobro for me to play with over the winter. Only a trusting family member would loan out something like that. "Thanks, Tom, this sure is a cure for the winter-time blues!"

Calling all District 6 OOTFA Members!

Another year has virtually sped by and we hope that it has been a good one for you. Lots of music has passed the portals of our gatherings.

Time to look ahead. There are none among us who can't get just a little bit better at playing our stringed instrument. So, why not take lessons?

Of course, good lessons from good teachers aren't free. But the District 6 Scholarship Fund will pay half the cost of lessons taken during the calendar year up to $150 per person for District 6 members.

This could help with Fiddle Camp expenses, or private lessons. The only thing it won't cover is "Internet Learning," simply because there is no way for the Scholarship Committee to verify the quality of the teaching.

So, save your receipts and when you reach $300 of expenses, submit your receipts or copies of your checks for a $150 Scholarship refund.

3 Circle Jam 1 - 4 pm
Sunnyside Grange
13130 SE Sunnyside Road, Happy Valley

Greetings from your new District 7 reporters, Nancy Christie and Larry Vining. Elaine Schmidt has retired from her reporting duties and it will take two of us to fill that role after the wonderful job Elaine has done since 2015. Elaine wrote about us in the February 2022 Hoedowner, so check that newsletter if you haven't met us yet. Elaine has also been our district chair for a few months, and will be concentrating on that role in 2023. Thank you, Elaine!

We will have a brief meeting on January 7th at the beginning of our circle jam at 1:00. We will be electing a Vice Chair at that time.

On November 23, we entertained Bonaventure Retirement Community residents in Tigard. A bit of scheduling hocus-pocus turned a 1-hour show into a 3-hour musical marathon for some good-natured musicians who arrived early.

District 7 at Bonaventure Retirement Community

We thank our members who dedicated their day-before-Thanksgiving afternoon to these appreciative Bonaventure residents.

Our December 3 circle jam attracted a nice-sized group of about a dozen musicians, even though some of our officers and others were traveling or on the sick/injured list. We squeezed in 23 tunes including old and new favorites plus some holiday classics. The musical saw of Gary Evans made an appearance, as did pecan brownies at our mid-jam break, baked by our scheduler Joe Martin.

Eileen Walter visited to tell us about the 2023 Oregon Open Fiddle Contest and to encourage members to enter the contest and/or volunteer for one of the many jobs needed to make this exciting event flow smoothly. It's March 18, 2023 in Lebanon, Oregon. Details are in this Hoedowner issue.

If your New Year's resolution is to give more time to your music, join us on the 1st Saturday of each month for a few hours of wonderful old-time music with fiddles, guitars, mandolins, cellos, bass, and a few ukuleles and saws! You can play, listen, or even dance. (If you search for the location on Google Maps, you'll find it labeled as a night club!) The bright lemon-yellow Sunnyside Grange is the place to be!

Thank you for letting me represent OOTFA fiddlers at the unveiling of the statue of Louis Southworth and his fiddle in Waldport on November 19. It was a lovely day at the coast, considerably warmer and sunnier than in the valley, and a crowd of nearly 100 came for the event. I was able to give them an hour of the likeliest tunes that Louis might have known, including the outstanding songs of the Oregon Trail and Westward movement, and a few extra requests. The event was enjoyed by all. ~ Marie Louis Southworth bought his freedom and traveled the Oregon Trail to Alsea Bay with his fiddle.

Carl Stinnett came with Ron Phillips, Ben Richardson and Rhonda Metler from John Day to our Christmas Potluck and Jam. Lars Hagbom, who has come to our Friday Jams really livened things up as he played his fiddle and his guitar so excellently. We had nearly 30 folks, with new listeners, and 12 musicians. We haven't had Paul Hyland sing for a long time, so that was fun. Christmas carols and the usual, were enjoyed.

George & Joyce Sahlberg

George Sahlberg is resigning after many, many, (about 30) years, as our secretary, treasurer, and membership person. Thank you, George, for your dedication to the Oregon Oldtime Fiddlers.

Lynn Mims will take over as the Secretary and Membership duties, and Janet Braymen will continue as Treasurer as appointed by Chair, Joan Suther.

A shout out to all our housebound friends, George and Joyce Sahlberg and Darlene Wingfield. Our best wishes for a happy, healthy and musical New Year to you all.

The Friday Night Jams continue to be held at the Hines City Hall at 6:30. We'd love to see you there. If you are passing through and wish to join us, call a District 9 officer.
