

Tune of the Month: Put Your Little Foot

The tune is also known as the Varsouvienne (other spellings exist). Some other names it goes by are The Waltz Vienna, The Silver Lake, Kick a Dutchman, Father Halpin's Topcoat, Shoe the Donkey, and The Girl from Warsaw. The Varsouvienne is a dance step in which the first part is a waltz hold with a turning and pointing the toe movement, while the second part is mazurka - heel, toe, chasse', chasse'. Many listeners recognize this tune and appreciate when it is played.
