Linda Danielson's Tune of the Month: "A and E Waltz" by Rusty Modrell

A and E Waltz: Named for the keys it is played in, this version comes from The Evergreen Fiddler Tunebook, Volume II, edited by Stuart Williams. Nobody is sure, but the tune is often said to have been composed by Rusty Modrell, who was an Oregon state champion in the 1960's. At any rate, Stuart and I were both learning this one from Rusty back in the 1970's. It appears to have migrated to Canada by way of Weiser.
